OBSERVATIONS

- a. The governmental powers of this world are established by and limited by our Sovereign God.
- b. The wealth and resources of our lives should have an eternal focus.
- c. There is no material wealth or governmental power which can endure forever.
- d. This final, great city is not yet disclosed.

That God should put it into the hearts of these kings to fulfil his will, in destroying the whore ... is easily received; but there seems some difficulty that he should put it into their hearts to agree and give their kingdom to the beast, which was sinful. Now this he did, not by infusing sin into them, which is contrary to his pure and holy nature, but by leaving them and giving them up to their own hearts' lusts.
